REPORT

Annual Sports day -20th, 21st and 22nd December 2023

Children Welfare Centre's College of Law organized an exhilarating three-day Sports Day event, providing a platform for students and faculty to showcase their athletic abilities and foster a spirit of teamwork and sportsmanship. The event featured a mix of indoor and outdoor games, making it a highly anticipated and thoroughly enjoyable occasion for all participants.

The first day of the Sports Day celebrations focused on indoor games, setting the stage for strategic thinking and precision. Chess competitions saw participants demonstrating mental agility and tactical skills in intense matches, making it a true test of patience and strategic planning. Carrom, a beloved traditional board game, attracted players of all skill levels, creating an atmosphere of friendly rivalry as participants aimed for precise shots and strategic strikes. Meanwhile, table tennis matches were fast-paced and energetic, keeping the audience engaged as players showcased their agility, reflexes, and precision in thrilling rallies.

The second day shifted the focus to outdoor activities, emphasizing speed, coordination, and endurance. The 100-meter race, held for both male and female participants, became the highlight of the day as participants raced against time, showcasing their speed and determination. Adding an element of fun and nostalgia, the sack race had participants hopping to the finish line amidst cheers and laughter from the audience. The badminton matches, conducted on outdoor courts, demonstrated skillful smashes, swift movements, and impressive teamwork in both doubles and singles categories.

The final day of Sports Day was marked by power, teamwork, and spirited competition. Shotput competitions, held for both male and female participants, displayed incredible strength and technique as participants aimed to throw the shotput to maximum distances. The tug of war brought teams together in a true test of coordination and strength, drawing loud cheers and applause from spectators. Box cricket, an innovative version of the traditional game, saw enthusiastic participation from both male and female players, blending cricketing skills with a compact and fast-paced format. The matches were filled with excitement and high energy, leaving the audience captivated.

The three-day Sports Day celebration was a resounding success, fostering a sense of unity, sportsmanship, and healthy competition among the participants. The event provided an excellent opportunity for students and faculty to bond outside the classroom and showcase their talents in various sports.

As the curtains closed on Sports Day, the enthusiasm and camaraderie displayed by everyone involved left a lasting impression. The event not only celebrated athleticism but also highlighted the importance of teamwork and perseverance, leaving everyone eagerly looking forward to next year's edition.

Indradhanush 2023-2024 -22nd February 2024 to 24th February

Children Welfare Centre's College of Law had organized annual fest "Indradhanush" a three-day extravaganza, celebrating creativity, talent, and cultural heritage. The event brought together students, faculty, and staff, creating an unforgettable experience filled with competitions, performances, and camaraderie.

The inaugural day of Indradhanush set the stage for intellectual brilliance with a series of thought-provoking events. The day began with War of Words, a debate competition where students showcased their eloquence, critical thinking, and ability to present arguments effectively. This was followed by Law and Order, a legal quiz that tested participants' knowledge of the legal system, current affairs, and principles of justice. The highlight of the day was Pitch and Plan, where aspiring entrepreneurs presented innovative business ideas, demonstrating creativity and strategic thinking. These sessions inspired not only the participants but also the audience, offering a glimpse into the future of leadership and innovation.

The second day shifted the focus to creativity and hands-on ingenuity, making it a favorite among art enthusiasts and innovators. The Imagination Rally, a poster-making competition, saw participants expressing their thoughts and emotions through vibrant and meaningful artwork. In Trash to Treasure, students transformed discarded items into remarkable creations, emphasizing the importance of sustainability and innovation. Meanwhile, Ink It Up, a tattoo-making competition, displayed the artistic flair and precision of its participants.

Adding a culinary twist, Khanna Khazana featured a "cooking without fire" challenge, where participants showcased their ability to craft delicious dishes creatively and resourcefully. The day's excitement peaked with Aapki Adalat, a Bollywood-style moot court. Blending drama, humor, and legal knowledge, this event entertained the audience while providing participants with a platform to showcase their theatrical skills and legal acumen.

The third and final day was the grand celebration of talent and glamour. It began with Sangeet Samaroh, a singing competition that filled the venue with melodious tunes and captivated the audience. Following this, Zara Nach Ke Dikha, a group dance competition, brought high-energy performances, mesmerizing choreography, and a festive spirit to the stage. The fest concluded with Walk Like a Star, a dazzling fashion show where participants strutted down the runway, displaying confidence, style, and charisma. This final event added a touch of glamour and left the audience in awe.

Indradhanush highlighted the diverse talents and vibrant spirit of its participants while strengthening bonds within the college community. Each day brought a unique flavor, offering something for everyone to enjoy and cherish. The three-day event not only celebrated culture and creativity but also provided a platform for students to explore their potential and create lasting memories.

As the curtains closed on Indradhanush, the smiles and cheers of the audience reflected the resounding success of the fest. It was a celebration of unity, talent, and tradition, leaving everyone eagerly anticipating the next edition of this magnificent event.

“Garba Day” on the occasion of Navratri -21st October 2024

The Academic and Cultural Society of Children Welfare Centre’s College of Law organized the much-awaited Garba Day Celebration on 21st October 2023 in the college auditorium. The venue came alive with vibrant colors, rhythmic music, and infectious energy as students and faculty united to celebrate this traditional dance form with great enthusiasm. The event served as a grand showcase of our rich cultural heritage, bringing together the entire college community in joyous celebration.

The program commenced at 10:00 AM with a warm welcome by the college principal, who spoke eloquently about the importance of Garba as a traditional dance form that embodies the spirit of unity and festivity. The principal also emphasized how such events help in preserving and promoting cultural values among the younger generation. The auditorium was exquisitely decorated with traditional motifs, colorful lights, and intricate rangoli designs, creating an ambiance that resonated with the vibrancy of the occasion.

The celebration featured a variety of captivating performances, each highlighting the beauty and energy of Garba. Students and faculty members, dressed in dazzling traditional attire, showcased their dance skills in a series of well-coordinated performances. The rhythmic clapping, swirling movements, and melodious Gujarati folk songs added to the magic of the evening.

To encourage participation, several competitions were held, including Best Dressed, Best Performer, and Best Group Dance. Winners were awarded certificates, adding a competitive yet fun spirit to the event.

The program concluded at 03:00 PM with a heartfelt vote of thanks by the event coordinator, who expressed gratitude to the organizing committee, participants, and audience for their contributions to the success of the event. Special appreciation was
